- December 9
- December 16

Do you want to give a special gift this year? If you are tired of giving generic gifts or gift cards and would like to give a handmade present, come join us as we make pottery for the holidays. This class is project driven in anticipation for the upcoming holidays and is open to beginners and intermediate potters who want the satisfaction of making and giving handmade pots. Beginning potters will cover basic throwing skills such as centering, opening, and pulling while making gifts to share. Potters who have wheel-experience can refine and expand their skills. Bring your gift list and let's get started!

Bring your gift list and I will personalize the syllabus to meet your goals!

You can make your gift/wish list or if you need some ideas:

Class 1: Mugs— for all the coffee drinkers and tea lovers on your list. Make one or several.

Class 2: Pet bowls—Great gifts for dog, cat, or reindeer owners.

Class 3: Santa plates and tumblers—leave cookies and milk for Santa on one-of-a kind pottery.

Class 4: Snowman lanterns— light the night or a table with an adorable snowman

Class 5: Assemble Snowman lantern

Class 6: Glazing

Bring your ideas/list and I will discuss your goals with you individually. You can work on individual projects or a group project I demo for the class. This class will be structured to help you make the gifts that you want to give this holiday season.
